

1. You want to explain where you live. What would you say?

[place]-() _____.

2. Match the following people with their birthplaces.

Keith
Susan
Jennifer
Dawn

England
Michigan
Philadelphia
Seattle

3. Where did Tim-sensei live at the following times? Write in English.

when:

where he lived:

akachan-no toki → _____
 kodomo-no toki → _____
 daigaku-sei-no toki → _____
 22-sai-no toki → _____
 25-sai-no toki → _____

4. You want to ask how long someone has lived in a certain place. What would you say?

_____ [place]-ni sunde-imashita-ka?

5. Complete the chart in English.

who	when	where	how long
Dawn	akachan-no toki	Seattle
	has-sai-no toki		1 year
Susan	kodomo-no toki	Alabama
			3 years
	kookoo-sei-no toki	Maine
			n/a

6. You will see “child” written as 小人 (meaning “_____”) on _____ signs, but the kanji for “child” is generally written 子.

7. Write the roomaji pronunciations for the following kanji.

きのう田中さんのうちにあそびに行きました。
 () ()
 田中さんは九しゅうにすんでいます。田中さんは
 ()
 子どもが三人います。おとこの子が二人とおんなの子が
 () () () () ()
 一人です。おんなの子の名前はもも子ちゃんです。
 () () ()
 いま、二才です。とてもかわいいおんなの子です。
 ()

8. Most Japanese names are written in _____, so if you know what the _____ stand for, you know what the name _____. Names that are pronounced the same have different _____, depending on how you write them. Other factors can also influence parents who are choosing a baby's name. For instance, the _____ of strokes it takes to write the name.